How my phone made me an instant New Yorker
2019/08/27

When I first moved to London a decade ago, I found cheap furniture by buying an evening newspaper and scouring the ads. Here we have Craigslist. A side table, a coffee table, a beautiful lamp, a leaning bookcase -- all bought for cash from local people and carried down the street or stuffed in the back of an Uber. (You should always call and ask your driver if this is OK.) The only snag was when we bought a boxspring that was too big to fit in even the biggest Escalade we could hire. Carrying that down the street earned us a few sideways looks, even in anything-goes Manhattan. And then of course it didn't fit up the stairs. Oh well: We sold it on Craigslist for a profit and found an Ikea bed that didn't need a boxspring.
